BACKGROUND

Ms. Greathouse's 60 month term of supervised release began in March of 2007. The petition to revoke supervision was filed on August 3, 2009 and concerns a theft allegation dating back to November 23, 2008. This incident occurred at Ms. Greathouse's previous place of employment.

Ms. Greathouse is currently employed full-time. She lives and works in the Fresno area. She is supervised by Mr. Pulido from U.S.

1 Probation in Fresno. She is otherwise in compliance with her terms of 2 supervision.

3 THE STIPULATION

4 It is the opinion of probation and the parties that this incident
5 does not warrant revocation of supervision and that Ms. Greathouse does 6 not pose a danger to the community. For this reason, the parties and 7 probation are requesting that the Court dismiss the Petition filed
8 August 3, 2009. The parties, with the full agreement of the probation
9 officer, believe that Ms. Greathouse should be continued supervision
10 under the same terms and conditions except that the parties further
11 agree that an additional condition of supervision requiring 100 hours
12 of community service should be added as a sanction for this incident.
13 The parties jointly request that this matter be addressed by 14 stipulation so that neither the defendant, nor the probation officer,
15 will need to travel from Fresno to attend a Court hearing.
